Ex Parte Motion to Return Plaintiff's Legal Materials Personal Property and Order State to Halt Harashment and Intimidation

William Kotis moves this Court to return his property and order the State to stop preventing Plaintiff from obtaining help in his civil case. Also order State and their agents to stop harashing and intimidating me.

On June 13, 2006 the Dept. of Public Safety sent their agents to the Federal Detention Center and while I was not present they stole my trial Exhibits, legal notes and other documents, address book, ink pens, high-lighters, family pictures, letters, and family cards and other personal property.

The State has ordered the Feds to place Plaintiff on 24hr. lockdown status which means he is denied access to the following: law library, his personal funds, yellow pages legal calls except for one call every 30 days, no pens, no pencils only this 3 inch security pencil

The pictures letters and cards all of family have more than just sentimental value they are needed since Judge Mollway is going to allow the state to introduce to the jury that I am in her own words " a notorious and infamous" murderer. Plaintiff needs all those items to refute such claims.

The Exhibits, trial notes, and other documents that were stolen further hamper Plaintiff from even coming close to presenting his case adequately.

Plaintiff prays this Honorable Court will have State return all that they have stolen from him on June 13, 2006 and order State to put a halt to all their harasment, intimidation and other overt antics

Declaration in Support of Ex Parte Motion to Return Plaintiff's Legal Materials ect.

Comes now Plaintiff William Kotis to declare this to be entirely and wholly true to the best of my knowledge under penalty of perjury.
